IS HAVING MORE THAN HIS SHARE.

William H. Gates of Lexington street is having more than his portion of trouble. In addition to the accident to his son Charles Sunday, who lost both legs under a train, Mr. Gates has one son, Reuben, in the asylum; another son, Henry, was drowned, and a grandson, Ed. Varvel, was also drowned. Mr. Gates has been ill and unable to work for the past two weeks.

If this isn't trouble, we don't know it.

News from Wilson Hospital this morning say young Gates is doing nicely and may recover.

A. C. Carr qualified as Notary Public with R. A. Carr as surety on bond. In the matter of the assignment of A. D. Bramel it was ordered that the written motion of assignee for sale of personal property be filed, and that the property be sold on November 28, 1914.

ARRANGING FOR BANQUET

November 27—Mason County Health League Making Brave Fight for Better Conditions.

At a meeting held last Thursday evening an organization was effected to arrange for the banquet it is proposed to have on the evening of November 27, in connection with the all-day meeting of the Mason County Health League.

Mrs. T. M. Russell was elected chairman and the following committees were appointed to solicit:

First Ward: Mrs. J. Clarke Rogers, Miss Lottie Berry.

Second Ward: Mrs. M. Galanty, Mrs. George Clephane.

Third Ward: Mrs. M. P. Coughlin, Mrs. D. Mathews.

Fourth Ward: Mrs. M. M. Gary, Miss Mattie Dobyns.

Fifth Ward: Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hollstein, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Hancock.

Sixth Ward: Mrs. Henry Shea, Mrs. James Hall.

All of these ladies are requested to report to Mrs. Russell before Tuesday evening in order that she may in turn report a definite plan to the Board of Directors at their meeting that night.

Arrangements are being perfected for all the details of this meeting and every man and woman in the county, whether they have been asked personally or not, are requested to do something to help make this day a success and assure the continuance of the work of the Health League.

Gov. McCreary has called upon every citizen of the commonwealth to do something to observe Tuberculosis Day, and Mason county citizens can not in any better way answer the Governor's call than by assisting in the work for this all-day meeting. The organization of the Health League was the first step taken in this community in the nationwide fight on the white plague and if the work is kept up it means that eventually consumption will be in a class with other preventable diseases that were a terrible menace to mankind in years gone by but which he little dreads today for the reason that he knows how to control them and at the first sign of their appearance the medical fraternity and the municipal authorities take hold and stop their spread.

Consumption can be put in this class and will be if the people want to do it.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

GERMANS MAY SPEND WINTER IN BELGIUM.

London, November 16.—The Germans are turning Belgium into a fortress, which means that if they do not succeed in advancing far into France, they intend to be prepared for a winter in Belgium. The whole coast, from Ostend to the Dutch border, has been placed in a state of defense and civilians are vigorously excluded from that area.

MORE INDIAN TROOPS IN FRANCE.

London, November 16.—The London Express has received the following dispatch from its correspondent at Versailles: "Twelve transports of Indian troops have been disembarked for the front. They are all of the cavalry and artillery arms of the service. The journey from Bombay took twenty-three days."

London, November 16.—The greatest single demand ever made upon the material resources of Great Britain was voiced by Premier Asquith this afternoon, when in the House of Commons, he moved an additional credit for war purposes of $225,000,000 ($1,125,000,000), which in addition to the millions already voted in August is equivalent to an increase of more than 50 per cent. in the national debt.

Premier Asquith stated in the House of Commons that the war already was costing Great Britain from $4,500,000 to $5,000,000 daily.

Berlin, November 16.—An official announcement given out this afternoon says that the German attacks in Flanders are progressing slowly, but that in the Argonne the Germans have obtained further important successes. The fighting in the east continues.

"According to the present report we made 23,000 prisoners and captured over twenty machine guns, as well as some cannon, the number of which has not yet been ascertained."

London, November 16.—The armies of the allies and of Germany were deadlocked in West Flanders today all along the whole battle line where the snow is ankle deep, and with the prospect of further intermittent artillery duels and infantry clashes, which for more than a month have been swinging back and forth without definite result. The snow and the generally adverse weather conditions in Flanders will make necessary more frequent shifts of men in the trenches and there will be more sickness, especially lung and throat affections.

SAYS JAMES CUMMINS SUICIDED.

(Carlisle Democrat.)

Mr. James Cummins, formerly of Maysville, but of later years of Atlanta, Ga., committed suicide by shooting in that city a few days ago. His remains were sent back to Maysville and interred.

Before committing the terrible deed he packed his trunk, then telegraphed to his relatives at Maysville of his death and made suitable funeral arrangements.

He was a son-in-law of Doeh Miller, of near this city, having married his youngest daughter, Miss Anna, several years ago.

BABY GIVEN AWAY AT THE PASTIME THEATER.

A real, live baby to be given away. This little darling has black eyes, black hair, a beautiful complexion, is fat and plump as any baby can be. It comes from a very intelligent family and is one that anybody could love and be proud of. The father of this unfortunate waif is dead and the mother, being unable to care for it, placed it on the doorstep of the Pastime Theater. Owing to the already overburdened condition of the management of this theater, the youngster will be given away one night next week. The exact date will be announced later.

DR. ARTHUR WALWYN EVANS

Welsh Wit and Humorist Delightfully Entertains Good Crowd at High School —at Night.

Last night at the Maysville High School auditorium, Dr. Arthur Walwyn Evans held the attention of some four hundred people for one hour and forty-five minutes when he delivered his lecture on "The Lord of the Lands."

Dr. Evans told what was behind the political unrest in England today—the same basic reason that gave the English their Magna Charta, and made Oliver Cromwell a historic figure; the struggle between aristocracy and democracy; the lords against the people, with David Lloyd-George as the modern Moses of the marching hosts.

Have we similar conditions in America today? You answer emphatically, "No!" This lecturer answers just as emphatically, "Yes!"

We have an aristocracy of wealth instead of England's aristocracy of birth.

Dr. Evans is a man who has traveled extensively and has had his vision broadened by the many things he has seen and the trials he has suffered. Dr. Evans spent the first twenty-four years of his life in Great Britain, but for the last six years he has lived in the United States. He, therefore, knew his subject well and knew how to portray it in such a way that no one could but help gather some good from it.

Facts to Remember About

HUNT'S Ready-Wear GARMENTS

THE QUALITY—which must measure up to the standard Mr. Hunt demands—and as he personally selects every model there are no haphazard methods in the choosing.

THE STYLES are not what Mr. Hunt hears are being worn but what he sees in the windows and on the promenade in Fifth Avenue. One point we emphasize is that every article of our Ready-Wear Apparel, suits, coats, gowns and blouses are designed and manufactured in New York City. All our purchases are confined to America's greatest fashion centre. We spend two months each season in New York City, therefore in correctness of styles we can compete with any city store in popular priced merchandise, though not in variety of styles naturally.

EXCLUSIVENESS is assured by the fact we never buy two models in the same color, and rarely two models alike in different colors.

THE PRICES cannot be bettered anywhere. Even in suits as cheap as $17.50 and $19.50 we positively assure the maximum of style and quality.

COME IN to see the new models in flare skirts and short coats Mr. Hunt has just sent us.

NOT THE PATHFINDER BUT THE FAULT FINDER.

Colonel Roosevelt, since his return from Africa has put in most of his time finding fault. H. found fault with President Taft, and now he is finding fault with President Wilson. Criticism of presidents, it would seem, might come with better grace from others than an ex-president, but Colonel Roosevelt does not let a mere matter of ethics deter him when he has something on his mind of which he desires to relieve himself. The danger is that he will soon have forced folks to rate him as a common scold.

The happiest days of Grover Cleveland's life were those he spent in comparative retirement after he had finished his second term in the presidency. In those last years he grew steadily in the love of the American people, and he died more generally respected and admired than he had been as the nation's chief executive. For his own sake it is to be regretted Colonel Roosevelt did not take a lesson from the experience of Mr. Cleveland.—Portsmouth Star.

$15,000,000 BOOST FROM BAGGAGE.

Among the suggestions for providing more revenue for the railroads is one that no baggage be carried free. It is estimated that if a charge sufficient to cover the cost of this service were permitted it would save the carriers about $15,000,000 a year. One thing is sure, there is an element of unfairness in charging a man without any baggage the same price for transportation as a man with a trunk weighing 150 pounds. Another thing is also sure, the railroads must have more income in order to meet the requirements of our fast growing country. Nothing will bring prosperity back so quickly as to give the railroads money for needed improvements and extensions.

"THE CROWD" ALWAYS VOTE WET.

Cities like Cleveland and Cincinnati and San Francisco and Los Angeles successfully throw the preponderant vote in favor of the "wet" forces. It is a condition which is more or less unsatisfactory to "dry" agitators, but it is an incontrovertible phase of human nature that when men and women are gathered in large communities they are less prone to advocate sumptuary legislation. You may call it "liberalism" or you may not. Nevertheless the condition remains.—Times-Star.

MR. I. L. LITERACY GETTING WISE.

I. L. Literacy, one of Kentucky's most notorious citizens, has been indicted on a charge of being a nuisance and is about to be brought to trial. He is charged with obstructing the intellectual progress of more than 200,000 people in this state, and kind is that the latter can spell brougham while it is expected that he will plead guilty and be sentenced to a term in the public schools.—Louisville Times.

SOME REVERSAL, THIS.

NEXT YEAR'S ELECTION.

There is always something doing in Kentucky politics:

"The election next year, for which the Democrats and Republicans will make nominations in the August primary, will be for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Auditor of Public Accounts, Attorney General, Treasurer, Commissioner of Agriculture, Labor and Statistics and Superintendent of Public Instruction, Judges of the Court of Appeals in the First and Sixth Districts three Railroad Commissioners, besides Circuit Judges and Commonwealth's Attorneys in each of the thirty-five Judicial Districts, State Senators in the nineteen odd numbered districts and 100 Representatives and a Circuit Clerk in each county. The fact that the Circuit Court officials are to be chosen adds to the interest and importance of next year's election."—Louisville Times.

LOVED TO DEATH.

"Do yer love me, 'Erb?"
"Love yer, 'Liza, I should just think I does. Why, if yer ever gives me up I'll murder yer! I can't say more'n that, can I?"—Punch.

THE SAFETY ZONE.

During a recent battle the colonel of an Irish regiment noticed that one of his men was extremely devoted to him and followed him everywhere. At length, he remarked: "Why, my man, you have stuck by me well today."
"Yis, sorr," replied Pat. "Shure, n.e. nither said to me, said she: 'Just stick to the colonel, Patrick, me boy, and you'll be all right. Them colonels never gets hurt.'"

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Pains of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking-down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

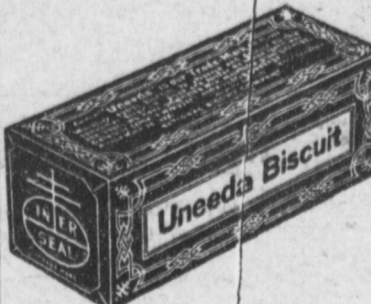

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Annie McClellan, 541 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was often dizzy and nervous and my head ached. I had pain in my back and my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the complaint immediately and made me well and strong."

Mrs. McClellan is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you—don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. McClellan had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. TURKEYS NOT AFFECTED

By Ban, Says Newman—Mt. Sterling Market Demoralized by Rumor That Ban Applied to Fowls.

Mt. Sterling, Ky.—Turkey men were up in arms here when it was reported that the quarantine had affected the shipment of turkeys and sales in the country were ordered stopped and receiving the birds declined. The poultry men who had bought many birds began investigation and finally got into communication with State Commissioner J. W. Newman, who denounced the report as a fake and said that the turkey slaughtering and shipping was not prohibited. Word was sent out to the country today and receiving began and the houses are all slaughtering today and 2,500 turkeys will be killed. The quarantine is strict, however, on all other stock, especially cattle, and it is claimed here that no stock will be allowed to be on the market here Monday except those under saddle and in harness. Report has it that many cattle from the mountains have been brought into the upper part of the county, however, and that many sales were made on Saturday.

ORDER FOR BLANKETS

Calls For Expenditure of $20,000,000 in This Country.

Chicago.—A hurry-up order for 4,000,000 blankets for the armies of the allies has been received in Chicago. The average price has been set at $5 a blanket, making a total of $20,000,000 waiting to be apportioned among the blanket manufacturers and dealers of the Central West.

SAYS $33,640 BELONGS TO ALEXANDER BANK CREDITORS.

The suit of Bank Commissioner Thomas J. Smith of Kentucky against the Fifth Third National Bank of Cincinnati, reached another stage Saturday when Smith withdrew his amended petition and the Cincinnati bank was allowed twenty days' time to plead to the suit. He seeks to recover $33,640, which, it is alleged, was collected on collateral that had been placed with the bank here by the Alexander Bank of Paris, Ky., for loans it had no authority to make. Judge J. M. Lassing and J. J. Williams are counsel in the case.

THE TALE OF A DOG.

If it is really true, as claimed by an Indian scientist, that the tail of a dog is purely for conversational purposes, whacking off the caudal appendage would curtail its loquacity, so to speak.

Even a girl who is 23 marked down from 33 regards herself as a nutritional bargain.

Mushrooms and Wild Oats grow best in the dark.

RUSSIA AND VODKA PART

Russian Government Will Lose $426,000,000 by New Order.

The assurance of the czar to the Russian Union of Abstinence that he "long ago decided to interdict for all time in Russia the sale of alcoholic drinks by the government" fixes as a policy what had been announced as a war measure, says the New York World. In a "constitutional government under an autocratic czar" there is no lack of authority. The change may prove the most important temperance movement of record.

Russia last year profited $4,000,000,000 by its monopoly in the sale of spirits, besides $26,000,000 in excise taxes and a considerable sum in liquor tariffs. The total balanced the war expenses—$273,000,000 for the army, $115,000,000 for the navy and $45,000,000 for administration. Vodka paid twice over the national debt interest, $208,000,000. Customs duties yielded only $167,000,000; state lands and railways $493,000,000.

To get so great a liquor revenue without charging prohibitive prices, the government had to encourage drinking habits upon a disastrous scale in a population not fully developed from self-control. Poverty was intensified, food was turned into distillery waste, health and morals suffered. An eloquent proof was the increase in prisoners, mostly sentenced by evil process, from 95,452 in 1906 to 174,733 in 1911.

It took courage to drop such a revenue at the outbreak of a great war, but a few weeks' trial of the system so improved the condition of the people that the government must have figured that it can get the income in other ways. The new order does not apparently mean prohibition; from brief accounts one would rather infer something like high license and the restriction of drinking-places. But one thing is certain, Vodka and the Russian government have gone out of partnership.

WHY MOST ACCIDENTS HAPPEN JUST BEFORE THE WHISTLE BLOWS.

Science has discovered that a very close relation exists between a person's degree of fatigue and accidents. The time when a man is feeling most worn out, both mentally and physically, is the time when he is most liable to be hurt or killed or to be the cause of one of his associates meeting with an accident.

Most accidents in factories and other places are due to some careless or thoughtless act. Such an act, it will usually be found, is in turn due to fatigue which fills a man with a blind desire to get to the end of a job.

FLEAS DISTURB WORSHIPPERS.

If hogs are not kept from bedding under the old Methodist church building the fleas are going to be so numerous that worship in it will be out of the question. The house should be fixed so the hogs can not get under it.—Arkansas Plain Dealer.

UNION TRUST CO.

Of Maysville Gets Official Notice and Commendation From Leading New York Financial Publication.

Copies of the twelfth edition of "Trust Companies of the United States," an annual publication which is compiled and published by the United States Mortgage & Trust Company, New York, have been distributed among the trust companies of this state.

The information contained therein is particularly timely in view of discussions during the past year at various state banking associations and at the recent convention of the American Bankers' Association.

According to a table in the book, showing a recapitulation of resources and liabilities of trust companies by states, Kentucky is reported as holding $37,251,049.40 in banking resources.

The Union Trust & Savings Company of this city is shown as having capital of $50,000.00, surplus and profits of $21,947.22, and deposits of $208,468.00

As indicating the growth of trust companies the total resources reported June 30, 1908, were $3,917,442.00, and on June 30, 1914, the total resources of those companies reporting were $5,924,979.00, which is more than one-half the combined resources of $11,482,190.00, reported by the national banks of the United States on June 30, 1914.

In the preface it is stated: "The substantial increase of nearly four hundred and fifty million dollars, shown in trust company resources, as compared with the figures of a year ago, together with the larger number of companies recorded, is an impressive reminder that the scope of useful activity occupied by these institutions is continually broadening and enlarging."

What She Really Meant

"I can't see," began the girl who likes to talk, "why the business of being an interpreter doesn't flourish nowadays. I'm thinking of starting out in it myself and I'm sure I'd make a large income. I don't mean interpreting foreign languages, but just plain English!"

"I have learned through painful years of bumping my cranium against stone walls and I yearn to take under my wing all the poor, bewildered mortals who still think the words people use express what they mean. I want to pat them on the back soothingly and murmur 'There! There!' and then explain to them that 'Do you like pink chickens?' really means, 'We came on the 10 o'clock train.'"

"For instance, Mrs. Gamboe calls you up over the phone some morning and says, 'My dear, we're having a few people in to cards tonight and want you to come. I just got it up on the spur of the moment—it's only a little informal affair. Oh, most informal, my dear. I assure you! Just a few friends! So glad you can come! Go-o-o-d-by!'"

"I've seen the time when I'd have dismissed the matter until just before time to dress, when I would not have even glanced at the shelf carrying my party gowns in boxes, but would have picked out some high necked thing. Probably I'd have just worn my hair as I ordinarily do and would have taken a street car to get to the scene of the festivities. But not now!"

"I have grown wiser. I know that the English language does not mean what it is made to say. So I spend all my time after luncheon preparing to go to Mrs. Gamboe's informal little affair. I have my hair dressed and my face massaged, and I get an extra manicure, and I have all my clothes under inspection, and I pick out almost my very best gown. Then I borrow mother's Paris evening wrap and phone for a taxi and wait five minutes in the crush at the door before I can even get in. There will be a Hungarian band playing under the stars and the whole place will be simply broken out with caterers' men, who pass you along from one to the other solemnly, trying to act as though they had buttered and footmanned in that one spot for several decades, as had their fathers before them."

"By this time I wish I had borrowed mother's diamond tiara, because I begin to feel kind of plain in only a satin and crystal gown and a string of pearls. There will be a four course supper and American beauty roses bursting out from all corners."

"It is really maddening to think what unlimited money and a telephone will do nowadays. It seems to me that they take away all the fun of giving a party, all the worry being removed. These rich women do not have to count their napkins and say, 'My goodness! I'll have to borrow Cousin Nell's best ones to fill out!' They do not discover that they haven't enough forks and that the spare room hasn't been dusted. All they do is phone a caterer and a florist and tell Mary to be sure to see that she dusts extra well downstairs. Then they can go to a luncheon and two teas and make a few calls and when they arrive home at dinner time they say, 'Dear me! I'd almost forgotten that I have a card party tonight!'"

"The only difference when it is considered a formal affair is that you get an engraved old English card ten days in advance."

"Then when you drop in to see a friend and she keeps you waiting half an hour before she comes down, and you say, 'I hope I didn't disturb or interrupt,' and she murmurs sweetly, 'Not at all, my dear! I was just hooking my collar, and I am so slow about doing things!' you would realize, if you had an interpreter at hand, that she meant that she was up in the third floor sewing room working like mad with a seamstress making over clothes and hadn't brushed her hair since she had twisted it into a knob on arising, and had on a kimono thing and old slippers. Also that she said when your card came up, 'Now, what on earth did she come today of all days, I'd like to know! Isn't it provoking!'"

"My helping hand would be of benefit also to prosy and boring and spoiled old bachelors when a sweet young thing of 20 leans over and looks into their eyes and beseeches, 'Do tell me all about how you make iron beams! I am so-o-o interested! It must be such a fascinating business!' What she really means is, 'If I can keep you talking to me as though your life depended on it I can get Harry stirred into a perfect frenzy of jealousy. He needs to be taken down a peg or two, the way he's acting of late with that Jenkins girl!'"

"I'm quite charmed with the possibilities of my plan for a new profession!" concluded the girl who likes to talk. "Don't you want to employ me?"

"I do not," emphatically said the man to whom she was talking. "I've already had lesson No. 1—and now please point out which one of those fellows is your Harry!"—Chicago Daily News.

QUICK TO LEARN

Are Grown-Up Illiterates—Ages People Grasp A-B-C's Rapidly.

The Federal census for the year 1910 shows that at the time the census was taken there were in the United States 5,516,613 persons ten years of age and over unable to read and write. This was 7.7 per cent. of the total population ten years of age and over.

The ignorance of this large number of people is not wholly nor chiefly their own fault, but is due in large degree to lack of opportunity which in turn is due largely to poverty or negligence of states and communities in which they spend their early lives.

The largest percentage of illiterates is composed of native white people, and the next largest negroes. The remaining small per cent, is made up of foreigners. Of the total number of illiterates, the majority live in rural communities, small towns, villages and open country.

In Rowan county the oldest pupil was 87 years of age and a woman past 70 learned to write and did write a letter in eight weeks after the moonlight school opened. In one class four generations of the same family were represented, and three ministers who were preaching in the neighborhood took advantage of the opportunity to increase their information.

These facts as developed in the Rowan county schools give proof of the theory that it is not difficult for grown-ups to learn to read and write, and that they are anxious to do so.

A Rare Bird.

As we wandered through the National Museum we came across a few printed pages which were encased in a magnificent cabinet made of gold and inlaid with precious stones.

"And what is this relic?" we asked.
"That," replied the guide, "is a speech that was printed in the Congressional Record."

"But what of it?" we poo-pooed.
"There have been a hundred thousand speeches printed in the Congressional Record."

"That is true," admitted the guide.
"But this speech was actually delivered."

MEASURING LIGHT OF STARS

With Improved Instruments, Johns Hopkins Professor Hopes to Secure Most Important Results.

A recent number of Le Radium contains a paper by Dr. A. H. Pfund of Johns Hopkins university, in which he describes some preliminary tests he has made of a new apparatus for measuring the light of a star. The work was done at the Allegheny ob- servatory, the Keeler 30-inch reflector being used. In the focus of the tele- scope, either of two small blackened disks, which formed the junction of a thermo-circuit, could be placed. The wires used for the thermo-element were alloys of bismuth and tin, and of antimony and bismuth respectively. They were enclosed in an evacuated capsule, closed at one end by a plate of fluorite and substituted for the eye- piece of the telescope. The thermo- current was measured by a moving- coil galvanometer. The sensitiveness of the arrangement was such that a candle at a distance of 80 miles would give a deflection of one mil- limeter. The deflections obtained from celestial objects were: Vega, 7.5; Jupiter, 3.0; Altair, 2.0 millime- ters. The author hopes, by using a more sensitive galvanometer and ma- terials for his thermo-elements, to in- crease the sensitiveness considerably, and in this way to open up a new field of astro-physical research.

SALOONKEEPER CONGRESSMAN.

When Michael F. Farley of New York City takes his place in congress, he will probably give his occupation as "saloonkeeper." For Farley runs a saloon, and isn't a bit ashamed of it. It is a "decent saloon," he says. And while the liquor question doesn't seem to have been raised or discussed in his campaign for election there has never been any doubt as to Farley's ideas on the subject.

He has been president of the Wine & Liquor Dealers' Association of New York county, and also head of the Central Association of Liquor Dealers of Manhattan. He has often appeared before legislative committees as an ad- vocate of respectable barrooms. He has argued with his associates that the only way to stem the wave of prohibi- tion is to reform the character of saloons generally.

"And that view is winning," he said recently. "All reputable men in the business are even more anxious than the public to eliminate the dives. The great majority of saloons nowadays are decent, and the number of places is growing; the disreputable ones are being gradually wiped out."

Farley may come into prominence in the next congress. The prohibition is- sue is pretty sure to be forced upon that body. It would make a picture- esque and decisive fight if the liquor de- fenders were led on the floor of the house by a man so intimately and ex- pertly acquainted with rum.—Owens- boro Messenger.

HOW TO SUCCEED

During the last few years, conditions in all lines of business, even profes- sional life, have changed so completely that every man is waking up to the fact that in order to win success he must specialize and learn to do some one thing and do it well.

So it is with any article that is sold to the people. It must have genuine merit or no amount of advertising will maintain the demand for the article.

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remark- able record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy. From the very beginning the proprietors had so much confidence in it that they invited every- one to test it.

It is a physician's prescription. They have on file thousands of un- solicted letters received from former sufferers who claim they are now en- joying good health as a result of its use.

However, if you wish first to try a sample bottle, address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., enclose ten cents and mention this paper. They will promptly forward you a sample bottle by Parcel Post.

Regular sizes for sale at all drug- gists—fifty cents and one dollar.

The question that you eternally ask yourself when about to make Christ- mas gifts is, "What is it the recipient of my gifts want most, will be most pleased with, what will give them the greatest and most pleasant surprise, and what will look its value without too great an outlay of money?"

Your photograph, as a gift remem- brance to your friends and relatives will give more real pleasure to them and less trouble and expense to you than a more costly gift they can not use.

END OF MILITARISM

When the mass murders of the in- sane soldiery are done there will be a day of reckoning for kings. Civiliza- tion is in travail. A new child is about to enter the human family. It will be more enlightened than its elder broth- ers and will advance the cause of all mankind. Its mother, European mon- archy, may pay for its advent with her own life or she may drag along for a time in invalidism, but her end is not far distant.

The people as a whole hate war. Their being forced into it will drive out of their minds all vestige of devo- tion to monarch. The time is not re- mote when militarism will end and wars cease. The masses are already of a mind to strip autocrats of their power to send armies to death and countries to ruin.—Danish Democrat.

MASON COUNTY TEACHERS

Two Score or More to Attend Mt. Sterling Meeting--Will Visit Lexington En Route--Nicholas Coun- ty the Banner County.

The following teachers named below will leave Thursday on the 5:35 a. m. train for the Ninth District meeting at Mt. Sterling. They will spend the day in Lexington.

They will be met by Superintendent Nannie G. Falconer, and Prof. Behan- non, specialist in rural school organiza- tion of State University. They will go direct to visit the Piesdane Consoli- dated school in Fayette county.

The afternoon will be spent at the State University.

The party will leave Lexington by interurban car for Paris where they will join the teachers who leave Mays- ville on the 3:45 p. m. train.

In talking to our reporter Miss Yancey said: "Our profession is di- vided into two distinct classes, the 'lifters' and the 'leaners.' A large majority of our teaching force are lifters and if every county has the qual- ity of teachers that we have, it will not be long until Kentucky will stand at the head of the list, instead of the embarrassing place the government statistics place us."

Miss Gardner, Superintendent of Nicholas county, telephoned Miss Yancey Saturday that every trustee and every teacher of city and county schools had enrolled for the meeting, and that three hundred persons would attend from her county.

Nicholas county certainly has the proper school spirit. There were 110 in attendance at the meeting in Mays- ville last year.

COUNCILMAN GANTLEY

Makes An Honest and Full Statement to the Public Concerning a Pair of Shoes Given to Almshouse Inmate.

In regard to the pair of shoes sent to the Almshouse, about which there was such a howl made in the issue of the Independent of November 14, I wish the citizens and taxpayers of the city at Maysville to know that the recipient of the shoes, while an inmate of the City Infirmary, unlike all other in- mates of that institution, does work for the city which more than covers the cost of his board and lodging. He is always engaged in something useful about the institution when he is able to do anything. There is, of course, much of the time when he is wholly in- capacitated to work, but, naturally in- dustrious, if he is able to go about at all, he is always engaged in some work about the institution, which results in a considerable saving to the city.

The matron of the Almshouse, evi- dently appreciating this fact, upon his request, asks that a pair of good shoes be furnished him. I directed her to procure the shoes; she did so. I never saw the shoes; I did not know where she purchased them nor did I care, pre- suming that the matron would, as is her custom, get goods worth the money. I take it she did so in this case. When the bill was presented I noticed that the shoes had been pro- cured at the Barkley Shoe Store and I presumed they were worth the price charged and I O. K'd the bill. I feel I did right in doing so, because they were worth the price and the recip- ient deserved them.

During my official experience as Councilman of the city of Maysville, while I have had the purchasing of hundreds of dollars' worth of supplies for the Alms account, and was in busi- ness with the desired goods in my own stock, yet I have never at any time filled one of those orders from my own store. I have always distributed the orders among the merchants of Mays- ville, although I had similar goods for sale.

The city of Maysville has probably received better value for the money invested in these shoes, than from many of the things she has paid for lately.

21,976 FORDS SOLD IN SEPTEMBER

The Ford Motor Co., announces that in the month of September there were sold and delivered 21,976 Ford cars. This was a gain of 11,479 cars over September 1913. This is significant not only because it shows that the Ford production is rapidly being increased to meet the stu- pendous influx of orders, but also because it demonstrates that the Ford Motor Company is maintaining the 300,000 car-schedule necessary to give Ford purchasers between August 1st, 1914 and August 1st, 1915, a share of Ford profits.

We have just received a car-load of the new 1915 models, and can give you immediate delivery. There's nothing to gain by waiting, so order now and enjoy your car this fall and winter.
